The Democratic Congressional Convention assembled at the Opera house at 11 o'clock this morning.

John V. Day has the contract for rebuilding the second story front of his house recently bought by Gable Bros. Second and Short streets.

The fast and careless drivers in this city—and there are many of them—should bear in mind that pedestrians ought to be allowed to cross the streets anyhow.

Madison Brown purchased of J. M. Redden a handsome granite monument, which has been erected in the Mayville Cemetery to the memory of Mr. Brown's father, mother and brother.

Statistics give it that West Virginia has 4,300 striking coal miners, when a week ago it had 3,000. Pennsylvania has 80,000 and a week ago had 40,000. Ohio had 28,000, when a week ago it had 25,000.

Reports from along the line of the C. and O. road in Carter county are to the effect that the great fire has been out that way as well as in Boyd county of late, and that the damage has been pretty heavy as well.

The game of ball yesterday between the Regulars and Picked Nine resulted in a score of 30 to 6 in favor of the Regulars. Tomorrow afternoon the Manchester and Regulars will cross bats, and a good crowd should be present.

James Outten displayed the jockey act last night to perfection. He started from Jacob Worthington's residence on East Third street, and when he got to the stable just ten seconds had elapsed. Jim will not ride at the spring meeting of Lexington, however.

Notice.

Having bought the old Zweigert house, corner Second and Short streets, which we are turning away to use the lot in connection with our present coal yard, we will have a lot of brick, joist, timbers and rafters for sale; also one good tobacco screw and one good twenty-five hundred-pound Fairbanks scale. Apply to GABLE BROS.

The Sun Life.

MAYSVILLE, KY., May 8th, 1894. To the Trustees of the Sun Life Insurance Company: I desire to thank you for the prompt manner in which you paid the claim on the life of my deceased husband, Samuel Hunter, who died in Memphis, Tenn., April 18th, 1894. I heartily recommend the Sun Life as an excellent reliable and friendly of the laboring people. Yours very gratefully, CAROLINE HUNTER.

FISCAL COURT.

The County Bonds Extended at the 5 Per Cent. Rate.

At the session of the Fiscal Court Monday the following was submitted:

Hon. Thomas R. Plaster, County Judge.—Dear Sir: Representing the holders of the outstanding bonds of Mason county, amounting to $100,000, all of which are subject to payment by the county on the 1st day of November, 1894, I propose that the present holders of the bonds will extend any portion which the county does not wish to pay at that time upon the same conditions now exist, at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually.

The proposition was accepted. The Treasurer was instructed to purchase and take up that of the outstanding bonds up to six—that is, $5,000—at a price not exceeding par, and one-half the interest, due November 1st, 1894.

The County Clerk was ordered to make a list of all claims allowed at this Court, and also a list of taxes, and place same in the hands of the Treasurer, and that the Treasurer pay said claims, less amount of taxes due the county.

The Justices were allowed $3 each for holding Court.

Judge Plaster, County Attorney Newell and Clerk Plaster were appointed to represent the county in changing rate of interest on the outstanding bonds. Claims were allowed as follows:

W. T. Berry, supplies for pauper.	$ 2.00
Bessie Johnson, upwearing road of committee.	4.00
Bradley Gilbert Co., printing road law.	15.00
William Luttrell, services on committee.	8.00
James H. Hargrave, services on committee.	8.00
J. H. Grigsby, services on committee.	9.00
L. M. Collins, services on committee.	8.00

I take this method in thanking my friends and neighbors for their kindness in my aid and bereavement in the death of my daughter, Mrs. William Dugan.

MR. WILLIAM KING.

The City Council of Covington ordered suit brought against the bondsmen of ex City Collector P. Becker for a balance of some $10,000, which is the amount of a shortage in his official accounts, as shown by an expert's investigation.

Thomas Botts of Flemingsburg is in the city.

Elias Collins, Jailer of Fleming county, is in the city.

WEAR THE BADGE.

Our Young Friend Dan Spalding Wants Better Good Times.

LOUISVILLE, May 7th, 1894. Dear Tommy: I see you have the picture of a fellow wearing a Cleveland Badge, similar to the one I have been wearing for some time. I fear that if there is not an improvement in times up poor Cleveland fellows will have to double them; they seem to be growing thin.

By the way, I see that Billie has arrived at his old home and is received with open arms and showers of sympathetic tears. Well, I am a tender-hearted old chap myself, and I bet on him I reckon I would have blubbered too. Yours, with kind regards, D. SPALDING.

MUST PAY.

Foreign Building Associations Must Pay Tax to the State.

At Frankfort Judge Cantrell has rendered a decision, in which he holds that the provision of the new revenue law requiring foreign Building and Loan Associations to pay into the State Treasury 3 per cent. of their gross receipts, is not in violation of the Constitution of the United States and of the State.

The suit was brought by the Southern Building and Loan Association of Knoxville, Tenn., to compel the Auditor to pay back the 3 per cent. tax paid in by it.

The case will be taken up by the Court of Appeals, and the Auditor for the Association, Messrs. Knott and Eddelen and Judge Bullitt, say it will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary.

There will be Union Prayer-meeting in the Sixth Ward tonight and tomorrow night at Bedden's M. E. Church, and Friday and Saturday nights at Mitchell's Chapel. All are invited.

The Supreme Council of the A. P. A., in session at Des Moines, Iowa, has been discussing the attitude of the organization towards ex Priests who are lecturing before parts of the country, presumably in the interests of the A. P. A., but really attacking the Catholic Church. State Secretary Jackson secured the passage of a resolution in the State Committee cutting the order loose from the ex Priests. Ex Priest McNamara vigorously opposed this in the Supreme Council, but the latter body sustained the State Committee.

ANOTHER MAYSVILLIAN

Seems to Have "Come to the Front" in New York.

Dr. H. K. Adamson, who left last week for a few months stay in New York City, in a private letter gives a bit of information which will interest some Mayville people. He was on a suburban train in company with our ex fellow townsman E. Robert Blaine, when a gentleman approached and opened conversation:

He said he judged Bob and I were from Kentucky, and he was from Louisville, but his family was from Mayville. He was a nephew of Brother Nicholas, and brother Arthur Berry and his family. He is quite a well known man here, and is a relative, and was very anxious to know if I knew Tom Davis. He was raised with him, but I just was not aware of it. Tom would not remember him. His name is James H. Nicholson, and he must be away up as he is a member of the Yacht Club, the Southern Society and several other swell affairs here. He gave me a very pressing invitation to call at his home before he and his family go to the seashore for the summer.

Remember you, James, certainly we do; and may God bless you, old fellow! But how the world has changed since last we met!

Memorials. COMMIE, daughter of Thomas and M. Columbus, died April 27th, 1894, aged 16 years and 3 months.

Farwell, dear Commie, you have gone, Our Savior has called you home, Angels beckoned you away To that world of endless day.

'Twas hard indeed to give you up, Our earthly home you made so bright; Your prattling tongue and winsome ways Were joy to us both night and day.

Why must you cross the stream so cold, Why were we left to weep and mourn? Jesus loved you and thought it best To take you home with Him to rest.

The days are all so sad and lone, Since you are gone to that happy shore, Arms ache with emptiness, hearts throb with pain, But oh, we would not call you back again.

Oh, the tender thoughts that cluster Round the memory of this dear child, Fairest, loveliest of Jewels, Darling girl, so sweet and mild.

Little hand so fair and stainless, Little heart so clean and pure, For the world they were unequalled, It was not best they should endure.

Our loss is their eternal gain, With Jesus they will remain, With angels too, upon that shore, Forever and forever more.

Stricken parents, Heaven comfort, For He sees and knows your grief; You have cast your care upon Him, In His promises find relief.

Oh, how sweet in that beautiful land, When free from all sorrows and pain, With songs on our lips and harps in our hands, We will meet our loved ones again.

GOLD RESERVE SHRINKING.

Belief that the Export to Europe Will Reach $25,000,000.

New York, May 7th.—The hole in the $100,000,000 gold reserve in the United States Treasury grows rapidly larger, and there is now no doubt that before the present outflow to Europe stops the reserve will be seriously impaired.

A well-informed foreign banker today expressed the opinion that the outflow of gold would reach $25,000,000.

Of course, this estimate includes all the recently shipped, and more than half that amount has already been sent to Europe during the past month.

The general opinion on Wall street is that this estimate is not excessive.

Should it prove correct, the imaginary reserve line which Secretary Carlisle has been endeavoring to maintain will be entirely destroyed, and considerably less than $60,000,000 in gold will remain in the Treasury.

Shipments began early and strong this week.

The Trans will take across the water to Europe $1,300,000 of the $17,000,000 in gold sent by Lazard Freres, the largest shippers in gold, and $500,000 by Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co.

All this was withdrawn from the Sub-Treasury today, being paid for in the U. S. Bonds.

The banks are unwilling to come to the aid of the Treasury in this juncture.

Not more than 5 per cent. of the money sent to Europe comes from the big banks on which drafts are made.

Today's withdrawals bring the gold balance in the Treasury well below the $100,000,000 mark.

The Treasury report this morning shows a balance of $97,483,531 in gold. Deducting $1,200,000 leaves $96,283,531, which is the state of the books at Washington tomorrow.

San Jose, press agent for John Robinson's Circus, is very ill with peritonitis at the Biggs House, Portsmouth. He was taken suddenly ill Sunday.

After five years punishment the famous trotting and running turfman, William McGuigan, Jr., was restored to the turf at Lexington Monday by an order issued by the Executive Committee of the Kentucky Association. About five years ago McGuigan was ruled off upon failing to prove his innocence of the charge of instructing his jockey J. Davis to pull McKie II., a mare owned by Bookmaker Tom Shannon, but trained by McGuigan, and the boy did as his trainer told him and lost the race. At that time McGuigan stood ruled off the trotting turf, also and he then earned the distinction of being the only man ever ruled off by both organizations.

C. AND O. MINES IDLE.

Loss of Traffic Felt Already—Fears of a Fuel Famine.

A dispatch from Ashland says the mines No. 6, the remaining mine of the Ashland Coal and Iron Railway at Rush, decided by a majority of 17, to join the strikers.

This makes the strike along the C. and O. general.

But Sandy miners are not affected, but as their entire output is contracted to the Ashland Coal and Iron Railway at Rush, decided by a majority of 17, to join the strikers.

The river supply has been cut off for two days, and packets that depended solely on this point must now go elsewhere.

It is probable that the Twin Iron Furnaces of the Ashland Coal and Iron Railway will not shut down.

The first effects of the present mining troubles, No. 6, the remaining mine of the Ashland Coal and Iron Railway at Rush, decided by a majority of 17, to join the strikers.

All of the bridge carpenters and painting crews of the three divisions centering at Ashland—the Ohio and Big Sandy, Lexington and Cincinnati Divisions—have been indefinitely suspended, while a dozen trappers and as many office men there will be likewise affected.

There will be a general cutting down of forces on the three divisions.

In the past twenty-four hours but one freight train has reported at Ashland from Lexington, and it is thirty hours since one departed from that point.

Business is at a standstill in the local yards, with no hope of recovery till the strike is off.

All the Big Sandy coal goes via Cincinnati now.
